The Story

After a lifetime of rescuing princesses, defeating a tyrannical king, going on epic adventures and never truly finding love, Mario is now facing his greatest challenge, the great yawning void that looms inevitably over us all. Mario faces no enemies, no friends, and no environments as he lives out his days endlessly in this purgatory environment. Mario wonders if he's been forgotten, misplaced, or if his developers just didn't have time to complete the project. Time is the only thing before him, and for the first time, Mario is afraid.
